

221A

Constitution

The name of the society is:

221A Artist Run Centre Society

The purpose of the society is:

To educate and increase understanding and appreciation of art and design practices by providing exhibitions and public presentations in a variety of public venues and by providing seminars and workshops on topics related to such exhibitions and public presentations.

To provide instructional seminars on topics related to contemporary art and design, to increase public knowledge and understanding of the historical, social and intellectual conditions that inform contemporary art and design practice.